Shayna covers the Hillary Clinton rally in Portsmouth, New Hampshire

Today is Saturday September 5th and I just came back from Portsmouth, NH where I took in the Hillary Clinton rally for president!! It was a big day as the senior Senator of New Hampshire Jeanne Shaheen was announcing her support for Mrs. Clinton. Mrs. Clinton has a LOT of passionate supporters. For those who don't know Hillary Clinton was the First Lady to former president Bill Clinton from 1992-2000! She has also been a senator in New York and our "Secretary of State"! Unlike Mr. Trump who I covered a while back who was a "republican", Mrs. Clinton is what is called a "democrat". It's all pretty confusing when you're eight!! This was a very difficult interview because we were outside and there was all types of barricades and secret service and police everywhere but I was determined to get my interview! I was standing right in front of Mrs. Clinton for about two hours while she and Mrs. Shaheen spoke about all different things. I waited with my questions ready! Finally the speeches were over and it was action time. Mrs. Clinton made her way around the front row to shake hands and that was my chance to make it happen and it did! And here it is...

Shayna....What makes you different from the other candidates

Mrs. Clinton....I think my experience, my platform, my understanding of how to get things done in Washington, my commitment to fight for people and issues that are both in the headlines and the small but important issues that people have to deal with every day!

Shayna....What is your favorite dessert?

Mrs. Clinton...my favorite dessert?!?!....anything with chocolate!
