

**Photo Caption****

Southborough Resident Joins the Boston Red Sox for Little League Opening Day at Fenway Park

April 19, 2018 (Boston, MA) — Little Leaguer Max Tolander, 9, of Southborough, MA joined the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park for Little League Opening Day on Wednesday, April 18. Tolander joined Red Sox mascots Wally and Tessie, along with 900 other young athletes to catch in the Fenway Park outfield, enjoy games in the Kids Concourse, walk the warning track and take photos in the Red Sox and visitor dugouts.

Little League Opening Day is a part of the Red Sox Calling All Kids initiative, which aims to provide greater access to Red Sox games, enhance kids experiences at Fenway Park, and celebrate and strengthen the game of baseball in the community. For more information on Calling All Kids, please visit RedSox.com/CallingAllKids.

Photo Caption (LittleLeagueOpeningDay_Nicholas_Tewksbury.jpg): Southborough resident Max Tolander, 9, plays catch in the outfield at Fenway Park to celebrate Little League Opening Day.

###